

THE WOOLMEN AWARD FOR THE MOST INNOVATIVE USE OF WOOL

The Shrewsbury Drapers Company are delighted to announce a new award for the Young Textile Competition 2021, a collaboration between the Shrewsbury Drapers' Company and the Worshipful Company of Woolmen.

The Worshipful Company of Woolmen is one of the oldest Livery Companies in the City of London. It is known to have existed in 1180 and was officially incorporated in 1522. The Company's original members were involved with the winding and selling of wool.

The Company is now primarily a charitable institution but still maintains a connection through their support of the wool industry. It's motto is: 'Lana Spes Nostra' Latin for 'Wool is Our Hope.'
